Subject: Right to Information Act- 2005 Appeal under Section 19(1) of the RTI Act made by Shri C. Shashi Kumar.

Sir,

Please refer to your appeal dated 5.06.2015

2. It is observed that vide application dated 05.02.2015, you have sought action taken status on your representation dated 28.12.2013 bearing Registration No. is MM/NJE/E/2013/00219. The action taken by PG Section has already been provided to you, vide this Ministry’s letter No. 24/1/2015-Vig dated 16th March, 2015 and 19th May, 2015.

4. It is to inform you that the jurisdiction of Vigilance Section of the Ministry of Mines is Inter-alia to entertain the complaints against the officers of sub-ordinate offices/attached offices/PSUs under the administrative control of Ministry of Mines.

5. The PG Section of the Ministry of Mines deals with grievances received thorough PG portal/grievances forwarded by other organizations, wherein any individual is not satisfied with the functioning of organizations under the administrative control of the Ministry of Mines and this Ministry proper.

6. As private Mining Companies/CBI/State Police are not under the administrative control of Vigilance Section/Public Grievance Cell of Ministry of Mines, the Vigilance Section/Public Grievance Cell is not supposed to take action on your representation to provide security to you.
7. With the observations as mentioned on pre page, your appeal stands disposed of. If you so choose, you can file second appeal with the Central Information Commission, August Kranti Bhavan, Bhikhaji Cama Place, New Delhi-110066 within 90 days.

Yours faithfully,
