ORDER

Sub: Delegation under Section 30 of MMDR Act 1957

In supersession of the order No. 1/24/2009-RC-l dated 8th March 2010, the para 4 of the guidelines dated 16.12.2009 may be read as under with immediate effect:

"4. Accordingly the powers of the Central Government under Section 30 of the MMDR Act, 1957 shall be exercised by the Officers specified in Annexure A of the Order in the following manner:

(i) Based on the records of the case as specified in the Rule 55(3) of Mineral Concession Rules, 1960, the Officer concerned shall record his opinion. If the officer concerned perceives a need to conduct an oral hearing, he will proceed accordingly before recording his opinion. Similarly, if any party to the Revision Application requests for oral hearing, the Officer concerned will take a decision whether to conduct an oral hearing or not and then proceed accordingly. Oral hearing, if held, must be brief and to the point.

(ii) In case on the basis of the record of the case it appears to the Officer that an intricate point of law is involved on which he is unable to form an opinion, he shall formulate that point and refer it to the Department of Legal Affairs for an opinion. The Officer shall finalize the opinion having regard to the observation or views of the Department of Legal Affairs, if any.

(iii) The Officer after observing above procedure shall formulate his opinion as Revisionary Authority and issue an order accordingly."

3. This issues with the approval of Minister of Mines.
